Treasury [illegible] DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER, MYSORE GOVT.

Bangalore, 10 February 1902.

From

E. R. SUBRAYER, Esq.,

Comptroller, Mysore Govt.

To H. V. Nanjundayya Esq M.A. BL
The Secretary to the Govt. of Mysore,
General & Rev Depts

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of Government order No. FL 1052, dated 28 January last, and to report that the following are the documents and papers that require the Dewan's signature or countersignature.

(1) Government of India Promissory Notes, Mysore Debentures held as security from Contractors, Government Servants &c, and also those held on account of Trust Funds and Government Surplus.

(2) Cheques on Bangalore Branch of Madras Bank in excess of Rs 10,000/- in amt.

(3) Advice to the Branch and to the Head office of the Madras Bank at Madras of withdrawals of more than 10,000 Rs a week.

(4) Advices to Courts &c of withdrawals in excess of £500/- a week.

2 In the case of the Securities and Debentures, only one of the halves is sent to the Dewan for signature, the other halves, being retained in the office. There is, therefore, no risk in the transmission through the Secretariat But there is delay not only in the transmission to and from, but also in delivering these documents after endorsement to the parties who deposited them, which delivery has necessarily to be made through the Heads of departments and Districts from whom they were originally received for safe custody.

3 Documents (2) (3) & (4) above refer to being complete in themselves, requiring in my opinion a greater safeguard in transmission than Government of India Promnotes. As all the withdrawals of funds made on these documents, have necessarily to appear in the State Treasury Accounts, that Treasury may be ordered to bring up these documents personally for the Dewan's signature.

4 Government of India Securities and all these Debentures will be taken by myself or one of my Assistants personally to the Dewan for needful endorsement as ordered, in order to avoid delay.

I beg further, to be instructed what what procedure should be adopted in the event of Dewan happening to be absent from Bangalore.

I have the honor to be
